

HUNTER A MOLLIN, D.C., C.C.S.P.

New York Chiropractic College

2360 State Route 89

Seneca Falls, N.Y. 13148

Curriculum Vitae

PROFILE

- 30 years of continuous, progressive clinical experience
- 25 years teaching experience in chiropractic education
- Strong in primary patient evaluation and case management
- Expertise in practicing and teaching primary patient evaluation, differential diagnosis and treatment including motion palpation analysis, diversified techniques, flexion distraction, rehabilitation, physiological therapeutics, whiplash and Graston Technique
- Well read and versed in the current literature regarding the contemporary chiropractic biomechanical, neuromusculoskeletal model
- Experience as an expert witness

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

PRIVATE PRACTICE (1981-Present)

- Owned and managed all aspects of a chiropractic practice providing portal of entry care for a broad patient population
- Directly involved in all aspects of patient care including initial intake, examination, radiological studies, diagnosis, treatment planning, rehabilitation, patient education and appropriate referrals
- Performs Independent Medical Examinations

CLINICAL TEACHING EXPERIENCE (1986-Present)

- Instructed chiropractic interns in all aspects of patient case management, supervised patient/intern contacts in clinic setting and managed patient care as faculty practice clinician
- Developed and implemented training procedures for chiropractic technique instruction in lecture and laboratory setting (core technique courses including Flexion Distraction, Postural/Functional Assessment & electives Graston Technique and Technique Skills Lab)
- Prepared and delivered ongoing presentation on Orofacial Pain & Temporomandibular Disorders
- Participated on test writing committees in Part II Chiropractic Practice and Neuromusculoskeletal diagnosis & Part IV Technique for National Board Of Chiropractic Examiners (Technique annually 2000-2007)
- Perform manuscript reviews for a variety of publishers

ADMINISTRATIVE EXPERIENCE

- Provided immediate supervision to the technique faculty with respect to implementation of academic and institutional policies and procedures
- Developed educational guidelines for technique instruction delivery and assessment
- Conducted departmental annual performance review and developed and administered departmental budget
- Interacted with department chairs and Associate Provost in developing faculty schedules
- Participate in New York Chiropractic College's curriculum review, revision and implementation

SEMINARS AND TRAINING

- Motion Palpation Institutes' following courses:
 - Motion Palpation and Clinical Considerations of the Cervical, Thoracic and Lumbar Spine and Pelvis (1982 - 3/95)
 - Motion Palpation and Manipulation of the Extremities, Myofascial Pain Syndromes, and Subluxation/Neurology
- Cox Lumbar Spine Symposiums (1983-84, 5/95, 10/01, 4/09)
- Cox Distraction Technique Certification, National College, 06/97, 9/2001 (certified through 2011)
- Musculoskeletal Pain: Diagnosis and Physical Treatment, Symposium with Dr. Mennell
- McKenzie Lumbar Spine (July, October 1998)
- Spine Research Institute of San Diego/Whiplash Certification program, 3/99, 5/99, 8/99, 10/99, 10/2000
- Graston Technique-Modules I, II, III, January, May 2004, October 2006
- Ethics, Morality and Record Keeping in Clinical Practice, 7/06, 3/09, 7/09, 7/10
- Documentation/Recordkeeping, 7/07, 3, 7/ 09, 7/10
- Complimentary Medicine, September 2007
- Integration of Nutrition into Practice, November 2008
- Geriatrics Symposium, March 2010
- Cox Technique, Mechanisms, Diagnosis & Treatment of Cervical, Thoracic and Lumbar Spines

AWARDS AND HONORS

- Phi Chi Omega Honor Society, 1980
- New York Chiropractic College Academic Honors, 1980
- New York Chiropractic College Dean's List, 1977-1980 (ten trimesters)
- National Dean's List Award of Merit, 1979-1980

EDUCATION

- Doctor of Chiropractic, New York Chiropractic College, 1980
- BS, SUNY Stony Brook, 1977
- Diplomate of the National Board of Chiropractic Examiners, 1980
- Certified Chiropractic Sports Physician, New York Chiropractic College, 1987
- Radiology Certification Program, New York Chiropractic College, 1991
- New York State Chiropractic License, 1981 (License Number X2675)

PROFESSIONAL PRESENTATIONS

- Co-authored and presented a poster, Technique Nomenclature in the Classroom: Correlating Static and Dynamic Models and a paper, Accommodating the Learning Disabled Student in Technique Lab at the March 1997 ACC Educational Conference
- Case presentation at Cox Spine Interdisciplinary Symposium, 8/01

PROFESSIONAL MEMBERSHIPS

- New York State Chiropractic Association, 2010-Present
- President Finger Lakes Area Pilots, 2008-Present
- Member Seneca County Airport Advisory Board, 2010-present

EMPLOYMENT HISTORY

- Private Practice, Syracuse, NY, 1999-Present
- New York Chiropractic College - Among the positions I have enjoyed are Assistant Professor, Associate Professor, Technique Department Chair, Assistant Dean, Staff Clinician, Assistant and Lead Instructor and Vice Chair of the Technique Consortium of the Association of Chiropractic Colleges, Technique Team Leader, Chair Curriculum Committee, 1986-present
- Private Practice, Hewlett Chiropractic Office, in Hewlett, New York, 1982-1995
- Staff Chiropractor, Forster Chiropractic Office, Brooklyn, NY, 1981-1982