

CURRICULUM VITAE

Jason A. Wright, M.S., L.Ac., Diplomate in Oriental Medicine (NCCAOM)

Office:

Dean/Associate Professor
Finger Lakes School of Acupuncture & Oriental Medicine
New York Chiropractic College
2360 State Route 89
Seneca Falls, NY 13148-0800
(315) 568-3268
jwright@nycc.edu

EDUCATION

1996 M.S. – Acupuncture, Bastyr University, Seattle, WA
1994 B.S. – Natural Health Sciences-Oriental Medicine major, Bastyr University, Seattle, WA
1991-1993 undergraduate coursework -Biology major-State University of New York, Cortland, NY

LICENSURE AND CERTIFICATION

2007 Diplomate in Oriental Medicine (NCCAOM) #7314, earned 10/07.
2003 Diplomate in Chinese Herbology (NCCAOM) #7314, earned 11/03, converted to Dipl. O.M.
2002 Licensed Acupuncturist, Colorado state license #845, issued 9/02, presently lapsed.
2000 Licensed Acupuncturist, New York state license #001 384, issued 3/00.
1996 Licensed Acupuncturist, Washington state license AC #310, issued 8/96, presently lapsed.
1996 Diplomate in Acupuncture (NCCAOM) #7314, earned 07/96, converted to Dipl. O.M.

ADMINISTRATIVE AND ORGANIZATIONAL EXPERIENCE

2009-present Dean, Finger Lakes School of Acupuncture & Oriental Medicine of New York Chiropractic College (NYCC), Seneca Falls, New York
2007-2010 Acupuncture & Oriental Medicine Clinical Coordinator, Finger Lakes School of AOM, Seneca Falls, New York
1999 Clinical Program Coordinator for Acupuncture & Oriental Medicine Department, Bastyr University, Seattle, Washington
1996-1999 Chinese Herbal Medicine Dispensary Manager, Bastyr University, Seattle, Washington

TEACHING

2009-present Associate Professor, Finger Lakes School of Acupuncture and Oriental Medicine of NYCC, Seneca Falls, NY
2003-2009 Assistant Professor, Finger Lakes School of Acupuncture and Oriental Medicine of NYCC, Seneca Falls, NY
1997-1999 Clinical Faculty, School of Acupuncture and Oriental Medicine, Bastyr University, Seattle, WA

- 1996-1997 Clinical Resident, School of Acupuncture and Oriental Medicine, Bastyr University, Seattle, WA
- 1998-1999 Adjunct Academic Faculty, School of Acupuncture and Oriental Medicine, Bastyr University, Seattle, WA
- 1996-1999 Adjunct Academic Faculty, Seattle Institute of Oriental Medicine, Seattle, WA
- 1996 Teaching Assistant for Meridians & Points Lab and Japanese Meridian Therapy, Bastyr University, Seattle, WA

PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES

- 2010-present Co-chair, Clinical Working Group, Academic Consortium for Complementary & Alternative Health Care (ACCAHC)
- 2010-present Chair, Herbal Committee for Council of Colleges of AOM
- 2008-2010 Co-chair, Herbal Committee for Council of Colleges of AOM
- 2008-present Member, ACCAHC Clinical Working Group
- 2009-present Member, committee on Good TCM Compounding & Dispensing Practice for AAAOM
- 2003-present Professional member American Association of Acupuncture & Oriental Medicine
- 2003-present Professional member Acupuncture Society of New York
- 2003-present Examiner - Clean Needle Technique: Council of College of Acupuncture and Oriental Medicine
- 2002-2003 Acupuncture & Oriental medicine private practice, Carbondale, Colorado
- 2000-2002 Acupuncture & Oriental medicine private practice, Cortland, New York
- 1996-1999 Acupuncture & Oriental medicine private practice, Seattle, Washington

AWARDS AND HONORS

- 2008 New York Chiropractic College Faculty Excellence Award in Practice & Professional Service
- 2007 New York Chiropractic College Faculty Excellence Award in Citizenship
- 2005 New York Chiropractic College Student-Awarded Professional Excellence Award
- 1995 Bastyr University Scholarship, recognition of achievements as student & member of Bastyr community
- 1993 Bastyr Presidential Scholarship, recognition as outstanding incoming student

PUBLICATIONS

- 2010 "Prepared Medicines in Relation to FDA CGMPs for Dietary Supplements" with Kevin V. Ergil in The American Acupuncturist, vol. 53:27-29, Fall 2010.
- 2010 "How do Food and Drug Administration CGMPs for Dietary Supplements Affect Oriental Medicine Practitioners?" with Kevin V. Ergil in The American Acupuncturist, vol. 51:28-31, Spring 2010.
- 2007 "Herb Supplements are Rooted in Living Plants" in Transitions magazine, NYCC

2006 “NYCC to Construct Herb Garden” in Transitions magazine, NYCC

PAPERS, PRESENTATIONS & LECTURES

2010 co-presenter, “cGMP for Chinese Medicine Herbalists,” AAAOM Expo 2010, Albuquerque, NM

2008 platform presentation, “Integrative Clinical Sites of the School of AOM at NYCC”, Council of Colleges of AOM spring meeting key-note presentation panel, San Francisco, CA

2008 recorded 15 minute video lecture segment touring the Medicinal Herb Garden for use in the Applied Clinical Nutrition program, NYCC, Seneca Falls, NY

2008 “Herbs & Skin Care, part I & II” community education classes, Seneca Meadows Environmental Education Center, Waterloo, NY

2008 Produced 110 garden plant labels incorporating precise Latin binomials, pinyin names with intonations, Chinese characters, & common names. These labels are being offered for use by members of the Medicinal Herb Consortium & Botanical Studies Garden programs nationwide.

2007 “Medicinal Herb Gardens as Teachers: Biodiversity, Ecology and Health,” continuing education & postgraduate course offered as part of Unity Day, NYCC, Seneca Falls, NY

2003-present guest lecturer on Oriental dietary therapy, AST 6558 Food as Medicine (DC elective), NYCC, Seneca Falls, NY

2003-present presenter on AOM for Bachelor of Professional Studies program, NYCC, Seneca Falls, NY

SELECTED CONTINUING EDUCATION COURSES

2010 Effectively Working with Others Using Emotional Intelligence, through Rockhurst University, NYCC

2010 AOM Ethics, Risk & Liability, Michael Taromina, Esq., NYCC

2010 Managing Menopause with Chinese Medicine, Caroline Radice, M.S., L.Ac., NYCC

2009 Weekend Seminar on Tibetan Medicine for the Western World with Dr. Barry Clarke, NYCC

2006 New England Faculty Development Consortium Fall conference, “Improving Student Learning through Assessment & Evaluation”, Boston, MA

2005 Making it in the Mainstream: achieving success with acupuncture in modern medical settings, David Kailin, Blue Poppy Seminars

2004 Dr. Zhu’s Scalp Acupuncture, Dr. Mingqing Zhu, NYCC

2004 Conversations with Medicinal Plants: field workshops, Jean Giblette & High Falls Gardens, Philmont, NY