

Steven Feldman D.C., MSACN

sfeldman@nycc.edu

Education

- NYCC 2008 – Masters of Science in Applied Clinical Nutrition
- NYCC 1978-1981 – Doctor of Chiropractics

Experience

- New York Chiropractic College – Senior Clinician: 1996-Present
 - Patient diagnosis
 - Treatment of neurological and musculoskeletal disorders
 - Management and mentorship of 7th and 8th trimester interns
 - Nutritional consulting and recommendations
- New York Chiropractic College – Director of the Student Health Center: 1991-1995
 - Directed and managed faculty staff and clinician personnel
 - Oversaw daily operations
 - Oversaw intern education
- New York Chiropractic College – Assistant Professor: 1986-Present
 - Lead instructor for multiple courses
 - Create syllabi and generate all course material
 - Assistant instructor in several courses
 - Typical class size from 30-100 students
 - Lead faculty advisor of the soft tissue club
- Chiropractic Private Practice – Patient Treatment: 1986-1991
 - Diagnosed and treated neurological and musculoskeletal disorders

Committees

- Faculty Awards Committee
- DAC Lab Committee
- Externship Coordinator
- Honors Court
- Handbook Committee
- Faculty Affairs
- DAC Committee

Courses Taught

- As Lead Instructor:
 - General Diagnosis
 - Differential Diagnosis
 - Physical Assessment I (Orthopedics/Neurology)
 - Physical Assessment II (Physical Examination)
 - Ethics
 - Soft Tissue Techniques + Lab
 - Introduction to Clinical Service
- As Assistant Instructor:
 - Correlative Clinical Assessment
 - Active Care (Rehabilitation and Physical Therapy)
 - Ancillary Therapy
 - Extremity Manipulation

Seminars

- Ethics in Chiropractic Practice
- Risk Management
- Record Keeping
- Top 10 Reasons for Dr. Visits

References

Available upon request