NYCC is an equal opportunity employer.

JOB POSTING
OFFICE OF HUMAN RESOURCES
September 20, 2013

POSITION: Clinical Research Faculty

DEPARTMENT: Research

DIVISION: Academic Affairs

HOURS: Full-Time, Monday thru Friday, 8:30-4:30

General Description

A. Function:
   • Serve as a Faculty Member whose primary responsibilities include conducting clinical research.
   • Maintain an active and independent research program in Epidemiology.
   • Provide clinical research expertise to NYCC campus community.

B. Organizational Relationships:
   • Responsible to the Dean of Research.
   • Opportunity for supplemental salary on funded grants when serving as principal investigator or co-investigator.

C. Duties and Responsibilities:
   • Provide clinical oversight and contribute to integrative educational research opportunities at Monroe Community Hospital.
   • Provide leadership and supervision of clinical research activities to include:
     • Development of health science research within the Academic Health Centers.
     • Development of health science research to increase the scholarly productivity of NYCC.
     • Application of a range of research methodologies and analytic techniques to evaluate health care and health services.
   • Pursue external funding to support research activities.
   • Publish research in refereed journals.
   • Provide mentorship of junior and/or clinical faculty in research.
   • Pursue advance educational training in Public Health and Epidemiology as needed.

D. Methods of Accountability:
   • Evidence of research productivity in terms of development of clinical research designs, research presentations, publications, and grant submissions / funding.
   • Evidence of quality patient care consistent with clinical oversight at Monroe Community Hospital.
   • Yearly written evaluation of academic performance in the work areas of teaching, research and citizenship in accordance with the Faculty Handbook at NYCC.
E. Mental and Physical Requirements:
- Strong background in health science research and biostatistics with clinical training in natural health care therapies.
- Highly motivated to conduct rigorous clinical research.
- Excellent interpersonal and organizational skills with the ability to function in a team.
- Highly developed written and verbal communication skills.
- Demonstrated ability to plan and coordinate a variety of research projects in a highly diverse and time-sensitive environment.
- The ability to use creativity, leadership skills and independent judgment to accomplish agreed upon goals related to research productivity, academic excellence, quality patient care, and professional leadership.

F. Education, Training, and Experience:
- DC is required with training, experience, or strong interest in epidemiological research.
- Master of Public Health and/or Doctorate in Epidemiology or related field is preferred.
- Demonstrated knowledge of clinical research designs, research methodologies, and statistical analyses in health science research.
- Publications in appropriate journals are required.
- Demonstrated ability to pursue external funding.
- Demonstrated track record as an active and independent researcher.
- Computer knowledge pertaining to word processing, spreadsheets, reference database, and graphic packages is essential.

If you are interested in applying for this position; please submit a cover letter, resume and three professional letters of reference to: the Office of Human Resources, 2360 State Route 89, Seneca Falls, NY 13148, or e-mail your response to: cquill@nycc.edu