Applied Clinical Nutrition Award Biography

Shari Lieberman Memorial Award:

Shari Lieberman, Ph.D., the founding dean of the College's School of Clinical Nutrition, was a preeminent authority on nutrition. She held an M.S. in nutrition, food science and dietetics from New York University and a Ph.D. in clinical nutrition and exercise physiology from the Union Institute, Cincinnati, Ohio. Dr. Lieberman was a certified nutrition specialist, a fellow of the American College of Nutrition, a member of the New York Academy of Science, a member of the American Academy of Anti-Aging Medicine, and a board member of the Certification Board for Nutrition Specialists. She served as president of the American Association for Health Freedom; and was the recipient of the National Nutritional Foods Association 2003 Clinician of the Year Award. As a clinical nutritionist in private practice for over 20 years, Dr. Lieberman was recognized as an industry consultant.
